

1. The five values that are most important to me are:

2. Ask yourself, "if a miracle happened right now, and I was at peace with my loss, what goals would I have for my life?"

What are some ideas of things you could do that would align with your values? Try to brainstorm. Your goals can be small. Remember, there are no wrong answers.